Part XIII Supplemental Information

Provide the descriptions required for Part II, lines 3, 5, and 9; Part III, lines 1a and 4; Part IV, lines 1b and 2b; Part V, line 4; Part X, line 2; Part XI, lines 2d and 4b; and Part XII, lines 2d and 4b. Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Part X, Line 2:

Generally accepted accounting principles in the United States require a tax position to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained on examination. The Organization has determined that there are no material uncertain tax positions that require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

Compensation Philosophy for Lighthouse Family Retreat

The Lighthouse Family Retreat Board of Directors approves all compensation decisions for employees of the organization. In doing so we follow several principles that guide our decisions:

The Board carefully monitors all significant expenses to ensure we use revenues in the best way to achieve our mission of serving families.

The Board provides a total compensation package that attracts, retains and motivates talented employees committed to our mission.

The Board independently makes all decisions regarding the hiring and compensation of the President and other senior officers.

The Board approves compensation arrangements of all employees, consultants and contractors. The Board may consider proposals from the Executive Director that impact staff below the Executive Director level.

In our total compensation package, Lighthouse may provide various standard elements such as base salary, performance bonuses, expense allowances (car or gas, housing, telephone), or benefits allowances. As we balance these elements, we target the total value of the package to be conservative, yet competitive with other organizations with which we compete for talent.

To determine the appropriate competitive level, the Board reviews practices of like organizations in the non-profit sector. We consider information in the local geographic markets where our employees reside, from sources such as recruiters, church officers and web-based surveys and publications. We also consider the competitive level that best fits the experience and leadership potential of a candidate or incumbent, in line with how we plan to grow the ministry in the future.

Our Board and management team together strive to make the wisest investment with every dollar we spend; and to create an environment for our employees where they feel they are rewarded fairly, and empowered to give their all toward our mission of serving families and kids battling childhood cancer.
